

BREXIT TIMELINE

Approximate Brexit and legislation timeline March 2017 - March 2019

Updated: May 2018

The notification of Article 50 signals the beginning of the two-year period within which a withdrawal agreement has to be negotiated between the UK and European Union. This timeline provides an approximation of key Brexit and legislative events for the next two years.

The times and events are estimated on the best available information and may change. Private Members legislation has not been included due to the uncertainty of when any Bills may be introduced.
